DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election of group I in the reply filed on 01/26/09 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)). Furthermore, upon additional consideration of the application, an election of species requirement is deemed necessary.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Group 1 consisting of specie A whereby only said conductive loop elements include at least one capacitive element, specie B whereby only said axial conductive element includes at least one capacitive element, and specie C whereby said conductive loop elements and said axial conductive element include at least one capacitive element.

Group 2 consisting of specie D comprising a plasma source apparatus of a first embodiment (see paragraph 0036), specie E comprising a plasma source apparatus of a second embodiment (see paragraph 0038), specie F comprising a plasma source apparatus of a third embodiment (see paragraph 0039), specie G comprising a plasma source apparatus of a fourth embodiment (see paragraph 0040), specie H comprising a plasma source apparatus of a fifth embodiment (see paragraph 0041), and specie I comprising a plasma source apparatus of a sixth embodiment (see paragraph 0042), specie J comprising a plasma source apparatus of a seventh embodiment (see paragraph 0044), and specie K comprising a plasma source apparatus of an eighth embodiment (see paragraph 0045).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from both Group 1 and Group 2 to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

- Group 1: specie A: claim 2
 specie B: claim 3
 specie C: claim 4
- Group 2: specie D: claims 12-14
 specie E: claim 17
 specie F: claims 9-10
 specie G: claims 18, 22-24
 specie H: claim 27

specie I: claims 19 and 26
specie J: claim 15
specie K: claim 16

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1, 5-8, 11, 20-21, and 25.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the species are directed to patentably distinct embodiments that do not comprise the same special technical feature that link the species as to form a single general inventive concept.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
